Almost everyone hopes their major at BYU will prepare them for a good paying job someday. Almost everyone also hopes to have a great marriage and family. Whatever your major, why not sign up for a minor in Family Life to prepare to turn that hope into a reality? Family Life is the minor for all majors!

REQUIREMENTS (15 credit hours)

The Family Life Minor is designed to provide a broad background in family relationships, human development, and family finance.

There are three required courses:
- SFL 160-Introduction to Family Processes (Social Science GE Course)
- SFL 210-Human Development (Social Science GE Course)
- SFL 260-Family Finance (Quantitative Reasoning GE Course)

And ANY other TWO courses in the School of Family Life:
- SFL 102-Interior Design (Arts GE)
- SFL 110-Food Preparation in the Home
- SFL 185r-Beginning Clothing Instruction
- SFL 200-The Eternal Family (Doctrinal Foundations GE Course, Counts as 2 hours Religion credit)
- SFL 223-Marriage Prep
- SFL 240-Parenting

And many more!

It just makes sense. Knowing more about the family will help you be a better spouse and parent, as well as a better teacher, doctor, attorney, social worker, entrepreneur, business manager, dentist, therapist, and a better young women’s leader, scout master, primary teacher, or church leader; or a better anything!
